VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1892.

NO. 48

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. Ed Doty entertained the Junior Club Thursday evening.

—Our efficient post-master, Miss Eliza Watson, has appointed Mr. Kirk Kirby as deputy.

—Our young friend, H. Clay Hamilton, will in a few days open a meat store on Lexington street. We wish the young gentleman much success.

—During the storm Tuesday evening the lightning stunned John Clark, better known as "Red Cloud," and also burned two stacks of hay in the old Baker field, near the depot.

—Two of the candidates for the democratic nomination for circuit clerk, Messrs. George Walden and Brad Jennings, have withdrawn from the race, leaving only Will Mason in the field. Nominations will be made Monday for sheriff and circuit clerk.

—Italy backed down; Chili backed down; England backed down and now it is reported that Canada has backed down, all at the bidding of Uncle Sam. Samuel is a wonderful man when he puts his dander up; and he is no more afraid of a small fool than he is of a large one; and woe be to the nation that dares to tread on the tail of his coat.

—Miss Nell Anderson, of Indiana, arrived Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. Susan Anderson. Miss Maggie Bright has returned to Stanford. Miss Mattie Walker has returned from a week's visit at Crab Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rice are spending this week at Linniett Springs. Mrs. Cleo Johnston and son are visiting Mrs. T. M. Johnston. Geo. T. Mason, of Chicago, is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. J. Mason. Henry Sanifer, of Middleboro, is visiting his grand-mother, Mrs. W. H. Smith. Miss Mamie Noel is the guest of Miss Ella Dunn, at Bryantsville. El Suton, of Markbury, has accepted a position in E. H. Batson's store. Miss Ella West has returned to Georgetown. Capt. Wellington Harlan, of Harrodsburg, was in town Wednesday. Dr. Joe Rogers is spending a few days in Bloomington, Ind.

—Not many years ago the fruit crop rarely ever failed. Probably not often than once in every four years the crop proved short, and there was seldom a total failure. The fruit was also of a better quality than we have at present. Of the many varieties of apples, peaches, and pears that are now placed on the market, many of them are tasteless and insipid, and frequently fail to come to maturity. The changes that have been taking place in the seasons may have something to do with the crop failure, but it would not necessarily affect the quality of the fruit. The country is flooded with catalogues of fruits from Maine to Georgia that are profusely illustrated with cuts of peaches, pears, apples, strawberries, melons, &c., that tempt the grower into purchases that rarely ever prove to be anything like the representations made in the books, or by the agents of dealers. The grafted or budded fruit is not as reliable as the seedling in producing a sure crop, although some of it is of an excellent quality.

DANVILLE.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—The INTERIOR JOURNAL which should have reached here Tuesday morning, this week, did not arrive till Wednesday morning. —Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hann returned to Denton, Texas, Wednesday after a pleasant visit to their old home here. —Connor, by C. F. Clay, owned by Warren Russell, of Danville, took the second money in the great race at Cincinnati Tuesday. Time: 2:18, 2:19. —Messrs. B. L. Salter, G. W. Coulter and J. B. Caldwell, heretofore appointed by the county court to divide the county into justices' districts, have submitted the following report to Judge McFerran, dividing the county into six districts. (Our attentive correspondent sends us the report in full, but it is too lengthy for our limited space. Err.) —Messrs. J. B. Paxton, of Lincoln, B. F. Slavin, of Garrard, Dr. Plummer, of Mercer, G. D. Mahan, Boyle, composing the Democratic Central Committee, met here Wednesday morning and by a majority vote concluded to adhere to the plan for the primary election in the circuit court judge's race adopted by them on the 11th inst. and published in this paper on Tuesday.

—Miss Sallie R. Letcher has returned to Richmond after a visit to the Misses Lyle. Mrs. E. B. Thiele has returned from Chicago. Miss Katie Phillips has returned to her home in Louisville after a visit to Miss Mary McRoberts. Miss Mary McRoberts will leave Friday for a two-week's stay at Estill Springs. Col. Thos. McRoberts, Miss Sue McRoberts and Miss Julia Higgins are visiting in Lincoln county. Mr. James Lane Allen, of Chicago, and Mr. C. C. Fox, of this place, are absent on a fishing trip at Cumberland river. Miss Laura Dutton accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hann to Benham, Texas, Tuesday. She will remain there for some time.

—Hon. Joseph S. Joplin, republican representative in the present legislature from Rockcastle county, called up county clerk Nichols Tuesday night about 9 o'clock and asked for license to marry a lady giving the name of Miss Eliza A. Ferrill. Minister Allen was sent for and the parties were married in the county clerk's office. The is said to be a step-daughter of Jasper Beckels, who is either now or was a short time ago a tenant on Mr. Joplin's Rockcastle farm. The bride and two other ladies, probably relatives, have been living here several weeks in one of J. M. Quisenberry's new cottages on East Main Street. The bride is a mother of a two months' old child and it is said has two other children in Rockcastle county under the care of her mother.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—At the late teacher's examination, out of 11 who went through the ordeal, only two obtained certificates—one a first and the other a third class.

—Commissioners F. P. Combest, H. D. Gifford and A. A. Woolford have filed their report in the county clerk's office, making eight magisterial districts.

—A. Clarke and wife have returned from a two week's visit to his father-in-law in Midway. Misses Jennie Ellis and Mollie Gadberry were on a visit to Miss Bertha Elliott on Friday and Saturday.

—Col. Silas Adams returned here Friday night and started Saturday morning for Frankfort. From all parts of the Congressional districts come the encouraging news that he is gaining strength in all directions.

—A Mr. Shearer, representing a firm at Nicholasville, in company with W. T. Humphrey, of this place, started on an extensive tour on Tuesday morning through the lower part of the county for the purpose of viewing the timber prospects, with a possibility of establishing a sawmill in our county.

—The Hon. D. G. Colson addressed a good-sized audience at the court-house on the 6th inst. While treating Colonel Adam with the greatest courtesy, John Henry got a little "blissum" for about three-quarters of an hour, after which very ably handled the tariff and other questions before the people for about an hour. His audience gave fine attention to his effort.

—Miss Bertha Elliott, of this place, has commenced a school on the Tennessee Ridge, three miles from here, with the best prospects of success. Miss Bertha is the orphan daughter of a former leading citizen of this county and this is her first school. She has taken great pains to qualify herself for the occupation, besides attending other good schools, she was a student for some time of the National Normal University of Lebanon, Ohio. She has the well wishes and sympathy of the people generally.

—Hugh Costello was shot and mortally wounded near Lebanon by Peter Sherlock.

—At Wilder's, Kenton county, a round house and eight freight cars belonging to the L. & N. were totally destroyed by fire. Loss $10,000; no insurance.

—Cloture is a word of French origin, meaning closing. As used in parliamentary proceedings it means a method of closing debate, and so forcing a final vote upon a measure.

—Ballard Smith, editor-in-chief of the New York World, has "resigned" because he took too ultra grounds in favor of the Homestead strikers for the proprietor.

—Wm. White, for 37 years grand secretary of Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows in Kentucky and for 57 years a member of the order, died in Louisville aged 76.

—Director General Davis, of the World's Columbian Commission, says Congress has really given the fair $3,233,000, or $783,000 more than it is generally understood the bill called for. In addition he says he knows already of an offer of 20 per cent. premium on the issue of $2,500,000 in half dollars, and looks upon Congress' action as a present of nearly $1,000,000, when a loan of $5,000,000 only was asked for. As this is a gift pure and simple the fair people ought to be pretty well satisfied.

—Hugh Costello was shot and mortally wounded near Lebanon by Peter Sherlock.

—At Wilder's, Kenton county, a round house and eight freight cars belonging to the L. & N. were totally destroyed by fire. Loss $10,000; no insurance.

—Wind, rain and hail caused nearly a million dollars' worth of damage to property and crops in Minnesota, Wisconsin and South Dakota Sunday night.

THE BIG PICNIC.

—DILLON SPRINGS, Aug. 10.—A crowd estimated at about 800 gathered here at the foot of the famous Wild Cat Mountain, to-day, and made the occasion a delightful one all the way through. It was a picnic given by the employees of the L. & N. and those in charge deserve great credit for the management of what proved to be a decided success. The first excursion train of five coaches arrived from Stanford at 10 o'clock, on which standing room was at a premium. Another train from Corbin arrived at 11:30, and on this came the Louisa full brass band and they whooped things up in good style. This band furnished the music for the dance, which was kept up during the day on the large platform erected for that purpose. The picnic grounds are immediately on the banks of Rockcastle river, densely shaded by majestic forest trees, and the surrounding scenery is beautiful, with wild flowers dotting the mountains on either side. Besides dancing the picnickers engaged in boat riding, courting and other amusements, and I noticed a number of young ladies swinging mighty high on swings that were there for that purpose.

—Mr. J. W. Carrier acted as general utility man.

The committee of arrangements were Messrs. J. B. Douglas, R. L. Martin, Wm. Abbey, James P. Kearns, George Rae and E. A. Hughes and they did their work well and everybody seemed to have a delightful time.

—The music committee, Messrs. Dave Burgess and Thomas Higgins, kept the ball rolling and each one danced to his or her heart's content.

—Mr. Mike Winterhall acted as prompter and a better one never lived.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dillon spread dinner for nearly 200 and it was indeed a sumptuous repast. The rest of the crowd had baskets of dinner.

—Dan Jones, 14 years old, is the snare drummer of the London band, and tho' in stature a little short, he gets there all the same.

—A more orderly crowd never assembled. Those in charge were determined should be the case. Not a man that even looked like he had had a drink in ten days was noticed on the ground. One fellow drew a bottle of the vile stuff on the train and he was told to drop it out the window, or he himself would go out. The bottle went. Some Winchesters and Smith & Wessons were secreted on the grounds on the side of law and order, but they remained out of sight.

—That young lady who liked to have danced out of her dress did some good grabbing when the skirts began to fall. Babies were as thick on the ground as the surrounding paw-paw trees, and as interested in the music.

If Mr. Dillon or any of the committees left anything undone to make the picnic a success, nobody found out what it was.

—There were plenty of pretty girls at the picnic from Mt. Vernon, Craft Orchard, Rowland, London and other points along the line. Every one in a while, however, one could be seen that was as ugly as home made sin, but I don't know where they were from.

—Capt. W. R. Dillon seems to be in the lumber business on an extensive scale. The capacity of his saw mill here is 25,000 feet per day. He has in the mill all the latest machinery. He has a tramway by which huge logs are brought over the mountain a mile distant and landed at the mill. The engine that does this work is almost a mile from the mill. About 700,000 feet of different kinds of lumber is now piled up in the yards, which are nearly half a mile long. The planing mill adjoining, just completed by Dillon & Johnson, is equipped with all the latest machinery and is a big thing. Every piece of lumber with which to build a house can be made into proper shape at this mill, so like Solomon's temple, it can be shipped elsewhere and almost be put up without the sound of a hammer being heard. Mr. Dillon says that the business done at his general supply store here amounts to about $1,000 per month. Mr. E. R. Davis is in charge.

—It is the intention of the L. & N. employees to give a picnic annually at Dillon Springs, and they say that those of the future shall be on even a larger scale than the one of to-day. J. F. W.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Dr. A. Pollock and wife, of German town, Mason county, have just celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage. The doctor is 84 years old and has been blind for nearly 25 years. His wife is a few years his junior.

—The Texas giant, Col. Torrell, 7 feet, 8 inches tall, and Miss Henrietta Morty, only 22 inches, were married at Bolivar, Mo., on the 9th. The marriage took place in the circus, to which they belonged, and is probably a fake.

—At Wilder's, Kenton county, a round house and eight freight cars belonging to the L. & N. were totally destroyed by fire. Loss $10,000; no insurance.

COL. WILLIAM O'CONNELL BRADLEY.

Col. Bradley was born in Lancaster, Ky., where he still lives, March 17, 1847. His father was the leading land lawyer of the State, but owing to his liberality and lack of financial management, died a poor man. Young Bradley received only poor educational advantages. He never went to school after he arrived at the age of 14. The war then broke out and owing to the practical suspension of the courts, the father moved from place to place, and never settled down permanently till 1864. The elder Bradley made the first Colonization speech, as it was then called, ever delivered in Kentucky, and was a most intense Union man. Young Bradley ran away from home twice and went into the Union army, but on each occasion, owing to the influence of the father, was taken out of the army, the father objecting because of his youth. In 1862, when the Refugee Guard was formed in Louisville, out of which grew Gen. Nelson's death, he became a member of it and served until discharged. He was raised in Pulaski county and for that county he has always entertained the warmest affection. At an early age he displayed remarkable oratorical powers. When he was admitted to the bar in 1868 the statutes of Kentucky forbade the granting of license to any person under 25 years of age; but the General Assembly passed an act, the first of the kind ever passed in Kentucky, allowing any two circuit judges upon finding an applicant competent to license him. After procuring license he entered into partnership with his father, by whom he was thoroughly trained, and now stands in the front rank of Kentucky's lawyers and advocates. His first appearance before the Kentucky Court of Appeals created a sensation. The court was charmed with his logic and eloquence and the papers were filled with the most complimentary notices. In 1870, the first year the negro voted, he became a candidate for prosecuting attorney. After a most exciting race he was elected and filled the office with fidelity and ability. In 1872 he ran for Congress against Hon. M. J. Durham and was defeated by only 60 votes. In 1876 his party again called him to run for Congress, and on this occasion he received nearly 3,000 more votes than in 1872, but was defeated by 2,800 votes, owing to an influx of voters by return of the C. S. R. He was urged to make the race again in 1878, but declined and the next year declined the nomination for governor, on account of his youth. In 1880 he was elected delegate-at-large to the Chicago convention and made an eloquent speech seconding the nomination of Grant. He was also chosen delegate-at-large in 1884. In 1888 his party made him its standard-bearer for governor and his splendid race against Gov. Buckner is still fresh in the minds of our readers. In 1890 Col. Bradley was again elected delegate-at-large and developed much strength for the vice-presidential candidacy, and might have gotten it but for the fact that he was from the South. President Harrison appointed him to the Korean mission, which he declined, and on the death of Col. Goodloe he was made National committeeman for Kentucky, which position he now holds, as well as a place on the executive committee. He represented Kentucky again at the last republican convention and took a large part in securing the re-nomination of Mr. Harrison.

The above is condensed from a New York paper, which recently published with his picture several columns of the life and doings of the genial and whole-souled gentleman, who is a power in his party and honored and loved by all democrats who know his many sterling qualities of head and heart. No man has done more for his party than Col. Bradley and none has received less reward.

For a republican to run for office in Kentucky is as a general thing the worst kind of rainbow-chasing, but the colonel is always ready to spend and be spent for the cause he so courageously espouses.

It is said that he can get almost any appointment from the president that would ordinarily be sought, but his law practice is so large that he could not afford to give it up for anything short of a first-class mission or a place in the cabinet. The INTERIOR JOURNAL, though diametrically opposed to him in nearly all his views, is proud to number the colonel among its best friends and hopes in time to turn him from the error of his ways.

Owing to the fact that counterfeit coins had conductors, Prof. Elihu Thomson suggests the electric current as a means of detecting spurious money.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY HAS HAD BILLS PRINTED ANNOUNCING THAT HE WILL SPEAK AT SALVISA, AUG. 19 AND INVITING THE OTHER CANDIDATES FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE TO BE PRESENT.

WHILE PLAYING AROUND THE BURNED DISTRICT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON, JIM MENEFEE STEPPED ON A PIECE OF BROKEN CROCKERY AND CUT TWO UGLY GASHES IN THE BOTTOM OF HIS LEFT FOOT.

A HEAVY RAIN FELL FOR A FEW MINUTES AT NOON YESTERDAY. IT DIDN'T WET MUCH, BUT WE ARE THANKFUL EVEN FOR SMALL FAVORS NOW. STOCK WATER IS VERY SCARCE AND THE PASTURES ARE DRIED NEARLY UP.

WE ARE PROMISED ELECTRIC LIGHTS TOMORROW NIGHT, CERTAINLY NOT LATER THAN THURSDAY, AND WATER NEXT WEEK. LET US ARISE AND SING THE LONG METRE DOXOLOGY, "PRAISE GOD FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW," WHILE BRO. VANDEVER LINES IT OFF.

MIDDLESBORO.—REV. GEO. O. BARNES, AS WE ARE INFORMED BY MR. GEORGE H. BRUCE, WHO WAS TOLD SO BY CAPT. BROOKES, OF THE MIDDLESBORO COMPANY, SAID AT THE CLOSE OF HIS MEETING THERE THAT HE HAD TRAVELED ALL OVER THE WORLD AND BEEN IN BOOM TOWNS INNUMERABLE, BUT HE NEVER SAW A TOWN WITH MORE BACKING FOR GREATNESS THAN THE MAGIC CITY, AND CAPT. BROOKES ADDED THAT HE SHOWED HIS FAITH BY HIS WORKS BY INVESTING $2,000 THERE.

THE DISTRICT COMMITTEE DECLINED TO CHANGE THEIR ORDER FIXING A PRIMARY ELECTION FOR AUG. 20, BY BALLOT, TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE AND COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY, AS WILL BE SEEN BY MY DANVILLE LETTER. MESSRS. BRECKINRIDGE AND NOEL OBJECTED TO THE BALLOT, THE PLANNER OF COUNTING, NOT "CASTING," AS THE PRINTER HAD IT IN OUR LAST ISSUE, AND THE PLAN OF APPOINTING OFFICERS OF THE ELECTION, AND PETITIONED THE COMMITTEE TO CHANGE THEM. JUDGE SAUFLEY, WHO IS ALWAYS SATISFIED WITH ANY ACTION OF THE CONSTITUTED AUTHORITIES, REFUSED TO SIGN THE PETITION.

THE DREAM OF LIFE.

From Dear Kate's Scrap-Book, and Published in Affectionate Remembrance of Her.

'Twas but a bubble—yet it was bright, And gaily danced along the stream Of life's wild torrents in its light. Of sunbeams sparkling—like a dream Of heaven's own bliss for loveliness— For fleetness like a passing thought; And ever of such dreams as these! The tissue of my life is wrought; For I have dreamed of pleasures when The sun of young existence smiled Upon my wayward path, and then Her promised sweets my heart beguiled; But when I came those sweets to slp. They turned to gall upon my lip.

And I have dreamed of friendship, too: Friendship's thought was made To be man's solice in the shade And glad him in the light, and so I fondly thought to find a friend Whose mind with mine would sweetly blend And two placid streams unite. And roll their waters in one bright And tranquil current to the sea, So might our happy spirits be borne onward to eternity.

But he betrayed me with pain I woke—to sleep and dream again.

And then I dreamed of love, and all The clustered visions of the past seemed aliy nothings to that last Bright dream. It threw a magical Enchantment o'er existence—cast A glory on my path so bright. I seemed to feel and breathe its light; But now that blissful dream is o'er, And I have waked to dream no more.

Beyond the farthest glimmering star That twinkles in the arch above, There is a world of truth and love Which earth's viles passions never stir. Oh, may I snatch the eagle's plumes And soar to that bright world above, Which God's own holy light illumines With glories of eternal day!

How gladly every lingering tie That binds me down to earth I'd sever, And leave for that blest home on high, This hollow-hearted world forever.

—George D. Prentiss.

This community was shocked to hear of the untimely death of John C. Warren, at Williamsburg, who was accidentally killed while performing his duty in the Kentucky Lumber Mill. He was the son of J. W. Warren, of this place, and about 20 years of age. Mr. Warren moved to Williamsburg eight years ago to accept a position in the Kentucky Lumber Mill, which he held until his death. He was considered by all who knew him to be an industrious, honest man, a kind husband and an affectionate father. He joined the Christian church at the age of 15 and continued a faithful member until summoned to appear before his Maker. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss. The father and family of the deceased desire to return their thanks to the people of Williamsburg and Crab Orchard who were so kind in their late bereavement.

—J. H. McIntyre's family of four and the colored cook, of Buena Vista, Ky., ate cabbage for dinner and died shortly afterwards. Upon investigation it was found that a poisonous snake had been cooked with the cabbage.

The above is from the Cincinnati Enquirer, which is always the willing dupe of any kind of a sensation, no matter if it is manufactured by one who drinks contraband whisky in dark alleys, and as a consequence sees snakes and other horrible varinants, where they do not exist.

—In the eastern penitentiary of Pennsylvania convict James Rodman suicided by setting his mattress on fire, sitting down in the flames and cutting his throat.

—The Carnegie mill at Duquesne, Pa., has resumed operations. Nearly all the strikers returned to work. They said they could not afford to take further chances to show their sympathy for the Homestead strikers.

—The chairman of the democratic county committee of the 7th Congressional district will meet at Frankfort August 11, to nominate a candidate for Congress. No opposition to the Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge is anticipated.

—R. M. Owens, of Mason county, for some years a leading member of the church, has been indulging freely in drink of late and a few nights ago some of his neighbors undertook to punish and reform him by whipping and ducking him in the Ohio river.

—A Fall river baker was recently given an order to make a pie weighing 2,000 pounds. The contents were 600 pounds of beef, 400 of mutton, 500 of fowl and 300 of potatoes. It took one barrel of flour to make the crust! The measurements were 8 feet long, 5 feet wide and 2 feet deep and it was sufficient to serve 2,000 people.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Daville, Indiana, writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad disease I had for 10 years, electric bitters relieved me, and I am now well again." John Leslie, Farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitter to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "I have used Electric Bitter for 10 years, and it is just the thing for a man who is all run down and sick, whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. During the epidemic of flux in this county last summer I had hard work to keep a supply of Camberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy on hand. People often came 15 or 20 miles to the city to get a bottle of the remedy. I have been selling packages of this medicine for 10 years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhea and flux than any other medicine I ever used. It was a perfect success, and was the only remedy that did cure the worst cases. Dozens of persons there will certify that it saved their lives. In four other epidemics of bowel complaint I have rendered equal service. It is a perfect success and has been equally successful, as a tonic, in all diseases for Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.
